

Offensive Lineman Finish the Course

For years we have looked for a term that would convey how important it was to finish a block not just make a block. In II Timothy 4:7, the apostle Paul says he “finished the course”, but only when his job was done. So whether you are a lineman, a tackler, or a ball carrier, you need to “finish the course”. Never stop competing until the whistle blows. Finish the Course!

Submitted by Mike Stanley